DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35

U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been received.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-2, 4, 7, 8, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Odoni (US 6,722,548).

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Odoni'548 discloses a combustion-engined setting tool for driving fastening elements having a fuel source 11; a combustion chamber 13, a fuel guide 12 connecting the fuel source 11 with the combustion chamber 13; one electronically controlled valve 24 arranged in the fuel guide 12 between the fuel source 11 and the combustion chamber 13; a control unit 20 for opening the electronically control valve 24 for a predetermined time period; a storage chamber via a mechanical valve 14 arranged between the electronically controlled valve 24 and the combustion chamber 13; actuation means via the conductor 46 that generates a valve opening signal, wherein the control unit 20 opening the electronically controlled valve 24 for the predetermined time period in response to a opening signal generated by the actuation means 46; actuating means 15 that generates a valve opening signal (see abstract).

With respect to claim 4, Odoni discloses a check valve via 21 arranged in the fuel guide 12 between the electronically controlled valve 24 and the combustion chamber 13.

With regards to claim 7, Odoni discloses sensor means 22 and data transmitting means 42.

With regards to claim 8, Odoni's cited prior art EP-0 597 241 BI, discloses an electronically control valve formed as a solenoid valve (see col. 1; lines 44-50).

With regards to claim 9, Odoni discloses a data processing unit (see col. 2; lines 53-55).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Odoni (US 6,722,548) in view of Achten (6,279,517).

Odoni discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for a piston arranged in the storage chamber and displaceable in response to actuation of the actuating means.

However, Achten'517 teaches a dosing system 18 with a storage chamber 26 having a piston 22 displaceable in the chamber 26 for the purpose of dosing compressed air by the connection 24 through to a combustion chamber 16. In view of Achten'517, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have provided Odoni's invention having a piston displaceable in a storage chamber in order to dose compressed air through to a combustion chamber.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 5-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Veldman'128 and Phillips'643 are cited to show related inventions.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Michelle Lopez whose telephone number is 703-305-8205. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Thursday: 8:00 am - 6:00 pm.
